ORDER ::-

Sri A. Sai Prasad, Assistant Secretary to Government, Revenue (DM) Department, in his representation read above, has stated that the investigation taken up by ACB is still under investigation and it will take considerable time to take a decision on the question of initiating disciplinary proceedings or filing a charge sheet against him. He is entitled to the service benefit of promotion on par with his immediate junior when he became due for promotion, until and unless a charge memo is served. He has, therefore, requested to consider his name for the post of Deputy Secretary to Govt (NC) as per the orders issued vide G.O.Ms.No.66, GAD, dt:30.1.1991 r/w Cir.Memo.No. 15833, GAD, dt:11.9.07 on par with his junior.

- 2) While the matter is under examination, in the reference second read above, the Hon'ble Tribunal, while reiterating the orders issued vide G.O.Ms.No.66, GAD, dt:30.1.1991, has directed that,

"In the present case, admittedly, investigation is not yet over and no disciplinary proceedings are initiated till now as no charge memo was issued to the applicant.

In the circumstances, the first respondent is directed to promote the applicant as Deputy Secretary in any one of the existing vacancies without reference to the pendency of investigation by the ACB authorities in Cr.No. 31/2007 by taking into consideration his seniority, eligibility and suitability to the said post within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, pending disposal of the O.A."

- 3) Keeping in view of the above orders of the Tribunal and the instructions issued in the G.O quoted above and that his name was not included in the earlier panel prepared for the year 2008-09, the matter has been placed before the Screening Committee for its consideration and recommendation.

- 4) On consideration of the recommendation of the review Screening Committee, Government hereby include the name of Sri A. Sai Prasad, in the panel of Assistant Secretaries to Government (SO line) for the year 2008-09 at Sl.No.35 (a), between the names of Smt. M. Kavitha
